

Abell Point Marina – Whitsundays - QLD

Lat 20°16'S - Long 148°43'E

Abell Point Marina is a premium marina uniquely located at the gateway to the Whitsundays, one of Australia's most prestigious and world-renowned tourism destinations. With direct access to the Whitsundays 74 islands and Great Barrier Reef, Abell Point Marina is located in Airlie Beach, North Queensland (Australia), 30 minutes from Proserpine Airport or a ferry transfer from Hamilton Island Airport.

The marina is just a short walk away from the vibrant town of Airlie Beach and caters for trailer sailors up to large superyachts. Marine support services include electrical, mechanical, chandlery and rigging, haul out facilities, boat yard and a dive shop.

The new owner of Abell Point Marina, Paul Darrouzet, is well progressed into developing the facility into a world-class destination marina for those exploring the Whitsundays.

Come and explore the revitalised Abell Point Marina

Having recently undergone a multi-million dollar development, Abell Point Marina is now a benchmark marina experience along the east coast of Australia offering state of the art facilities and luxury services for all size vessels. The marina has recently completed the upgrade of the Marina South office, installed 300 extra parking spaces and upgraded the boardwalks in the precinct. The new Barcelona Tapas Bar is a vibrant place to relax and enjoy Spanish cuisine and Sorrento's new deck on the northern breakwater is the best outdoor area on the coast. Further restaurant and café options are now being explored to enhance the appeal of the marina experience.

The Northern Marina Village has just been refurbished to ensure a relaxed environment in the midst of a vibrant port while providing easy access to marine services. The friendly marina team are proud of their work and anticipate achieving their ultimate goal - a world-class marine precinct - in the very near future.

Our aim is to provide excellent, cost-effective and timely service to you, our customer.
